Chair's Report

Paul Marjoribanks
Chair - Country Cricket

The NSW Country Cricket season 2024/25 included a comprehensive schedule of fixtures, and this report outlines some of the notable events from the season.

Newcastle has won the Hogg-Silver Shield for the sixth time since its introduction in 2015. The award recognises the top Zone across all NSW Country Cricket competitions each year.

In season 2024/25 Newcastle won the McDonald's Country Championships (male), Plan B Country Bash – both male and female, McDonald's NSW Under 16 Female Country Championships, and the NSW Youth Championships male Under 15. Congratulations to the players, coaches, and administrators within the Newcastle Cricket Zone.

Newcastle secured the McDonald's Country Championships title for the sixth consecutive season, setting a new record. This result reflects the ongoing performance of teams in the Newcastle District Cricket Association. In the final at Pratten Park, Newcastle defeated Western Zone. Congratulations to the players from Newcastle, along with coach Shane Burley and captain Nick Foster, who have participated in all six championship wins.

The men's and women's Plan B Country Bash finals were played consecutively as a double-header at the Sydney Cricket Ground (SCG). Matches at the SCG are highly valued by all involved. In the finals, Newcastle defeated Western Zone in both the men's and women's matches. It was a fantastic day of cricket and Country Cricket thanks the SCG Trust for their support and looks forward to future opportunities to play games on this magnificent venue.

The Toyota Australian Country Cricket Championships were held this season in the Barossa Valley, South Australia. Both the New South Wales men's and women's teams demonstrated strong performances and maintained competitiveness throughout the tournament; however, neither team achieved the outcomes they had hoped for in their respective campaigns. This cricket competition features teams from all states, each demonstrating a consistently high level of play and evenly matched abilities. NSW must do better, and the improved performance of the Bush Blues and Bush Breakers will be a major focus for next summer.

It was also pleasing to see the improved performances of Southern Districts on the field in their second year as a Zone and look forward to this trend continuing in coming years.

Dylan Hunter (Newcastle) won the 2024/25 Josh Hazlewood Medal. Dylan was player of the match in both the McDonald's Country Championships and Plan B Country Bash finals, represented NSW Country and made the Merit Australian Country team.

Caoimhe Bray (Newcastle) received the Alex Blackwell Medal after a standout season representing Newcastle in the Plan B Country Bash, the Sixers in the WBBL, and NSW Breakers in the WNCL. Caoimhe also represented Australia in the Under 19 World Cup.

As well, we acknowledge our other worthy award winners being:

- Country Umpire of the Year – Jeff Egan (Riverina).
- Country Curators of the Year – Taj Dosanjh and Aaron Singh - Wilgulla Sports Complex, Woolgoolga (North Coastal).

The following regional individuals/organisations were also recognised with Cricket Australia awards:

- Community Cricket Coach of the Year – Dave Neil – Orange CYMS Cricket Club (Western Zone).
- Community Facility of the Year – Artie Smith Oval, Bomaderry (Greater Illawarra Zone).

Dylan Hunter
Mark Curry Medalist
Player of the Final

Newcastle made it six titles in a row after comprehensively defeating Western by 71 runs in the final of the McDonald's Country Championships played on the 2nd of March 2025 at Pratten Park in Sydney.

Dylan Hunter put on a show opening the batting, scoring 147 off only 103 balls including six 6's and twelve 4's. Logan Weston's handy 39 saw a second wicket partnership of 171 with Dylan Hunter which allowed Newcastle to finish with a very competitive total.

Daniel Chillingworth bowled superbly to take 5-11 off only 3.4 overs, however Dylan Hunter's 147 saw him awarded the Mark Curry Medal as Player of the Final.

Country Cricket NSW wishes to acknowledge competition sponsor McDonald's, as well as Newcastle and Southern Districts Zones (Shoalhaven DCA) for their support of the respective pool matches. # NSW Youth Championships

In the male competitions, Illawarra Flames enjoyed success in the Southern pools winning both Under 13 and Under 15 age brackets, whilst CAW Murray took home the Under 14s. The Northern pools saw Central Coast (Under 13), Hunter Thoroughbreds (Under 14) and Newcastle Blasters (Under 15) take home their respective age groups.

The Under 15 female competition continued to prove very popular with 10 teams participating. In a keenly contested event, Western just edged out Newcastle on run rate after they both finished equal on points.

Cricket NSW would like to thank Ballina DCA, Ballina Shire Council, Clarence Valley Council, Clarence River CA, Dubbo Regional Council, Dubbo DCA, Lower Clarence CA, Singleton Council and Singleton DCA and for their support of the various regional carnivals of the NSW Country Youth Championships.

McDonald's Under 19 Female Country Championships

Carolyn Sheehan Shield

This year saw a change in the format and structure of the McDonald's Under 19 Female Country Championships, moving from an eight to a four-team competition with the aim of strengthening the matches across the competition. Zones were paired together with their nearest partner to form the four teams being Northern Stars (Central Northern and North Coastal), New Coasters (Newcastle and Central Coast), South West (Riverina and Western) Southern NSW (Greater Illawarra and Southern Districts).

The Championships was scheduled to be played in Coffs Harbour; however, games were played at Woolgoolga due to 150ml of rain in the two days before the carnival making grounds at Coffs Harbour unplayable. The competition format was a mixture of Twenty20 and 40 overs a side matches, played over four days – with day 1 washed out.

After four rounds, New Coasters and South West qualified for the final after finishing in the top two positions on the ladder.
